WAR ON UNIONS.

"Death to unionism in the Cripple Creek district!" is the new slogan of the Citizens' Alliance, which has sent a decree broadcast that every person con-nected with any union in Cripple Creek must either sever his or her connection with such organization or leave the dis-

This latest stand of the anti-unionists was vaguely hinted at two days ago, was vaguely hinted at two days ago, but the movement on the part of the alliance seemed so absurd to 3,000 or 4,000 unionists in the camp and its enforcement fraught with so many difficulties that it was not taken scriously.

Tyson S. Dines, a Denver attorney, and one of the executors of the Stratton estate, is in Cripple Creek in conference with Citizens' Alliance leaders, and it is announced that he is preparing a form which will be presented to every merchant and business man and all other employers of labor in the entire district, pledging them not to employ any person who is affiliated with a labor union.

No person who works for a living will who is affiliated with a labor upion. No person who works for a living will be exempt, and the absolute annihilation of unionism in this county is predicted by members of the Citizens' Alliance and the Mineowners' Association. This is considered the most drastic step yet taken by the alliance since it secured the upper hold in the district, and its enforcement will affect 3,000 men and women now affilia' d with the various unions.

Among the unions that will be affected by the new movement are the clerks, cooks and waiters, bartenders, carpenters, electricians, trainmen and stone and brick masons. The unionists assert they will fight the movement to a finish.

Gold Brick Stolen.

Edward Delany, a Detroit, Mich., bartender, is under arrest and the police say that he is suspected of connection with the theft of a gold bric's valued at $22,000 from the Pacific Express Company's office in the Union Depot in Detroit over a year ago. Gold bricks valued at $80,000 were in transit from the west and were unloaded at Detroit at 4 left on a truck for a short time. When the ex press agent transferred the bricks he discovered that one was missing. Of-ficers worked on the case for weeks, but were unable to solve the mysterious theft. Delaney was yesterday afternoon released on a ranand bond of $1,000. The police say that after the theft of the gold brick, a year ago last March, they called on pawnbrokers, jewelers and old gold dealers of the city and asked to be notified in the event of any quantity of gold being offered for sale. J. H. Schwegler, a jeweler, notified the police Monday that some gold had been brought to him rep-resented to be gold dust, but that an ex-amination showed it to be fillings. It was traced, the police say, through a clerk in another jewelry store back to Delaney, who had offered it to the jewelry clerk for sale, the clerk for some unexplained reason sending it to Schweg-ler. The police decla 3 that the filings are the same carat as the stolen gold
